Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2024/01512

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited ("Post Office") on 15 November, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("FOIA").

In your email, you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

"I am trying to find a list of post offices and their addresses as of the Year 2000. I'd be very grateful if you could let me know where I can find this?"

We can confirm that Post Office does not hold the information you have requested. If you are interested in a particular Post Office that was open during that time, you may wish to consult the following website which holds details of historic and current branches: <https://sites.google.com/site/ukpostofficesbycounty/>.

Alternatively, you may wish to search the House of Commons Library for the information you are seeking: <https://commonslibrary.parliament.uk/>.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response, you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire SK9 5AF

Telephone: 0303 123 1113
