Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2025/00018

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited ("Post Office") on 10 January 2025, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("FOIA").

In your email, you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

"1. Whether Post Office Limited accepts money orders as a form of payment or as a deposit.

2. The policies and procedures in place for handling money orders.

3. Whether Post Office Limited accepts bills of exchange and any other related financial instruments.

4. The policies and procedures in place for handling bills of exchange and any other related financial instruments.

Please provide any relevant documents, policies, or procedures that detail the acceptance, processing, and handling of these financial instruments."

We can confirm that Post Office does not accept money orders, bills of exchange or any other related financial instruments. Only cash, cheques and postal orders are accepted, therefore no policy or procedure documents with respect to their handling are held.
